BIO

Uber Gene ("aubergine") is a short (3'9") featherweight mutant who attacks with sonic blasts, has super-human sense of taste, and is perpetually surrounded by a repugnant hostility feild that makes people so envious of his extraordinary talents that they want to hit him.

Uber Gene is from the far away village of Minny Apples and may or may not be a radiation-infused undead ancient from before the apocalypse times.

JAMES' NOTES

---

GAMMA WORLD is a bit like a Ouija Board in that the creatures you roll up are manifestations of your inner thoughts. Ed is a massive Prince fan and although he didn't know it while the dice were rolling, with every mutation it became clear and clearer that he was rolling up a post apocalyptic Purple One!
